Linden High School, Linden, N. J.

PREFACE

The 1961 Cynosure Staff presents this volume as the latest of the long and cherished series of Linden High School Yearbooks. The theme of this volume is the Knights of the Round Table.

The very mention of the days of the Round Table recalls an era whose ideals were sincerity, service, strength, and purity. Linden High School instills these same virtues in the young men and women she sends into the world. We hope that in some small measure we have captured these ideals and have passed on to the readers of this book some of the joy and feeling which we experienced in preparing another link in the long chain of Linden High School's memories.

Student-Faculty Relationship.

Linden High was snowbound much of the winter, but even this didn't stop many of the school's ardent fans from attending activities such as the senior play and basketball games.

Beside the average day of school work, field trips were taken by school groups. A physics class visited Public Service and saw a steam turbine; the United Nations was visited by history classes; Political Science and Dramatic Clubs enjoyed Broadway plays.

As a new attraction, a three-day lecture was given by Representatives from labor and management.

Excitement grew as the completion of the new wing drew near. The thought of the vast gym and the modern science classes lifted the spirit of the Linden High School Students.

The Scribes

Operation Cynosure!

"King Arthur and his Court" is the theme chosen by the senior Editorial Staff for this year's Cynosure. Working with this challenging idea, the Editorial Staff has attempted to produce a book that graduating seniors and underclassmen alike can look through with pleasure for many years. Mr. Volz, adviser, editor, and all members of the editorial staff take pride in creating the 1961 Cynosure.

Justice of the Round Table

Rudy Franklin addresses the council.

Mary Mrozek, Thomas Saunders, Carol Krochak, and Joanne Bender search for answers to suggestions submitted to the council by students.

Jim Wittes, Joe Malik, Jean Smith, and Diane Farbaniec discuss the plans for a student council function.

Under the excellent leadership of our president, Rudy Franklin, the Student Council accomplished numerous projects during the school year. The council was advised by Mrs. Atkins.

A familiar sight to all is the Student Council bulletin board. All messages and announcements are posted there. Students not on the Council are able to express themselves by means of the suggestion box located near the bulletin board.

Bookcovers, decals, and tablets were sold by the Council throughout the entire school year. The annual Senior-Faculty game was held on February 15. Although the Seniors fought vigorously to win, the Faculty won by a slight margin. Proceeds from the game were put into the scholarship fund.

This year a new procedure was employed to elect the council representatives. The process included a screening of the candidates and a general voting by the entire student body. A change has also been made in the election of the Halloween King and Queen. It will go into effect next year.

Mrs. Atkins proofreads Diane's minutes.

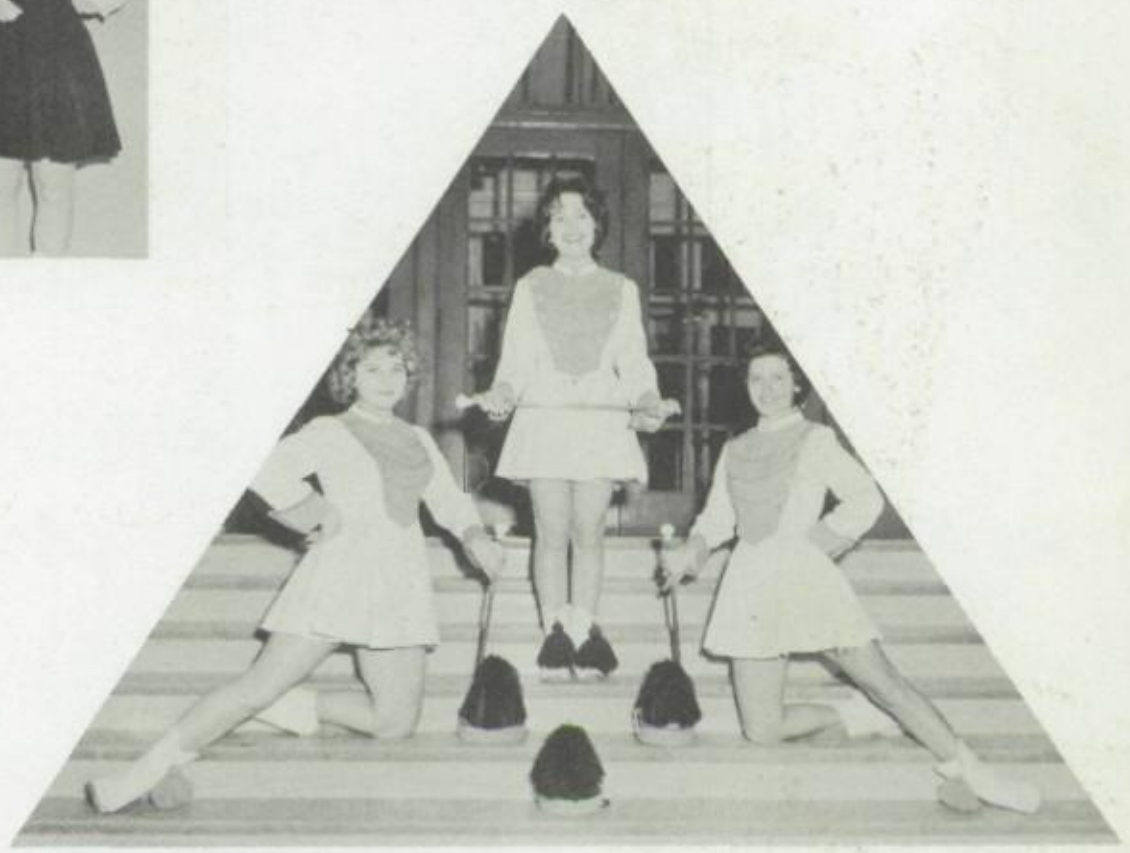
Underclassmen who twirl are Barbara M., Ethel F., Lorene P., Carolyn R., Carol R., Anne M., Cathy B., Charlotte S., Rosemary K., Pat H.

The cheerleaders and twirlers of Linden High are to be accredited this year for all the energy given to livening up our school spirit.

During football season, the cheerleaders could be found weekly at pep-squad meetings, helping the anxious club members practice for Saturday games.

The Cheerleaders, headed by co-captains Toni Kania and Fran Mersitz, added orange and black shakers to their routines this year for an extra touch of pep. Under the direction of Mrs. Florence Casale, the virtually new squad had an excellent season, ending it with bright new orange uniforms for basketball games.

Our high-stepping, versatile twirlers did a wonderful job this year at our half-times, doing perfectly timed, exciting, and colorful routines. These twirling misses are under the direction of Captain, Mary Ann Hilla and adviser, Mrs. Julia Creitz.



The Senior twirlers include Ethel U., Mary Ann H., and Dolores P.

During half-time you can find Ann Margaglione strutting expertly.

Heralds

Our school newspaper, the Chronicle, has brought many enjoyable and informative moments to all of us this year. The various polls that were taken by members of the Editorial staff have added a touch of amusement to our normal everyday school life and have given us a chance to voice our own opinions about current fads and fashions.

With the aid of Mr. Pellicone and Mr. Sklaw, the Chronicle staffs have recorded all the important events of this school year and have made it one to be easily remembered by everyone at Linden High.

Members of Mu Alpha Theta, the National Mathematical Honor Society, and Lambda Mu Chi, the Junior math club, work diligently toward this goal once a week with the aid of Miss Reynolds. Exploration of the many new and diversified fields of mathematics by the clubs is accomplished through guest speakers, explanations by club members, and occasional trips.

MINSTRELS

Who performed in the Court of Arthur were never of nobility, but their talents served as a pass key to the halls of the great. A glance at our Music Department will tell you that even the nobility of Linden High School are proud to be modern minstrels.

Practice makes perfect!

Royal Arthurians

Our harmony-makers come to us in the form of the Linden High School Orchestra. Under the leadership of Mr. Both, its members practice for us. The orchestra made its performance in an assembly, at the Senior Play, and in the annual Christmas program.

Gaily Sang the

The members of Linden High School's choral groups find enjoyment, self-expression, and experience through vocal participation under the excellent supervision of Mrs. Sahler.

The Glee Club consist of girls who are willing to work hard to obtain a better understanding of music. We can certainly say these girls combine their voices to produce music which has won the admiration of many audiences.

Choir members concentrated on perfecting their talents and increasing their musical knowledge.

The annual assembly program in which these singers participated demonstrated the time and effort given by all to present a program of fine music.

Theatre Guilds

For many years the theatre groups of Linden High School have taken young maidens and squires and advised them in the art of acting and poise in speaking properly. The members of these groups learn many interesting and helpful things while enjoying themselves.

Today our Forensic Club, guided by one of our many excellent English teachers, Miss Gilkeson, continues to help students overcome fears of speaking to groups. A variety of debates are held, talks are often presented by members of the group, and poetry is read. This club was first begun under the guidance of Miss Lang, our assistant principal.

The Debate Club, organized originally by Mr. Jamison, and still under his leadership, is noted for its fine achievements in debating within itself, with its own members and with other schools. This club is divided into two groups which meet during school periods.

The Dramatic Club functions under the dual guidance of Mrs. Herbster and Mr. Jacobs. In this Club skits, short dramatic interpretations, and monologues are presented. These presentations provide entertainment for all who attend them. Each year the Dramatic Club presents a one-act play in assembly which is always enjoyed very much.

Mrs. Brod and Miss Yevich, members of Linden High School's faculty, have sponsored two very successful career clubs this year. These clubs are the Future Nurses and Teachers Clubs.

The objectives of these organizations are to make its members aware of the usefulness and responsibilities of their chosen careers. Among the activities which aid in producing a better understanding of the objectives involved are speeches by experts in their respective fields and various enlightening films.

Also very active in the pursuit of a nursing career are the Candystripers, who do volunteer work in the Elizabeth General Hospital.

Chariot Racers

Being assisted by speakers and movies, this year's Teens for Safe Driving Club has made remarkable progress in developing its members' driving ability. Some of their speakers were a police captain, a Motor Vehicle Inspector, and an insurance man. Their main project was to determine the public's obedience to stop signs throughout the city.

Their efforts and activities will surely increase the number of safe and careful drivers and will tend to make our highways of the future much less hazardous.

First Row: R. Turick, R. Franklin, Miss D. Page, J. Malik, S. Thompson. Standing: M. Underwood, G. Karshmer, J. Bender, J. Williams, F. Klunder, T. Previte, K. Harris.

The Political Science Club's main objective is to familiarize students with national and international affairs. With Mr. Fay as advisor, the club discusses world problems and figures. It analyzes current events and important political figures. This includes foreign countries, and the United States on a Federal and a local basis. The club proves interesting to the future politicians of the school, as well as students just going out into the world.

The Assembly Committee is a group of students, along with Miss Page, who select our Assembly programs. They try to make them interesting as well as educational.

Apprenticeships

For many years the service clubs of Linden High have carried on their wonderful aid to both the faculty and student body.

Unfortunately, the Studio Guild, supervised in previous years by our former art instructor Mrs. Smith, has been discontinued; but our other service clubs, Library Squad, Service League, and Secretarial Appointment, continue to devote their time and experience to bettering our school.

Library Squad aides devote their free time to helping librarians and students. They arrange books on shelves, check books going out or returning to the library, help students find certain books, and do many other things they are asked to do by the librarians.

Girls in Secretarial Appointment gain experience while they assist office workers, the Guidance Department, Cynosure and Chronicle Staffs.

Service League girls are always on hand when needed to run an errand for one of the Office Staff or to aid someone in finding a student or classroom. These are the girls you often see by the middle stairway sitting at a desk in front of the auditorium.

Could that be a test Arlene Giglio is mimeographing?

Posted in the main corridor, Service League members aid school visitors.

Now's a good time to do some homework!

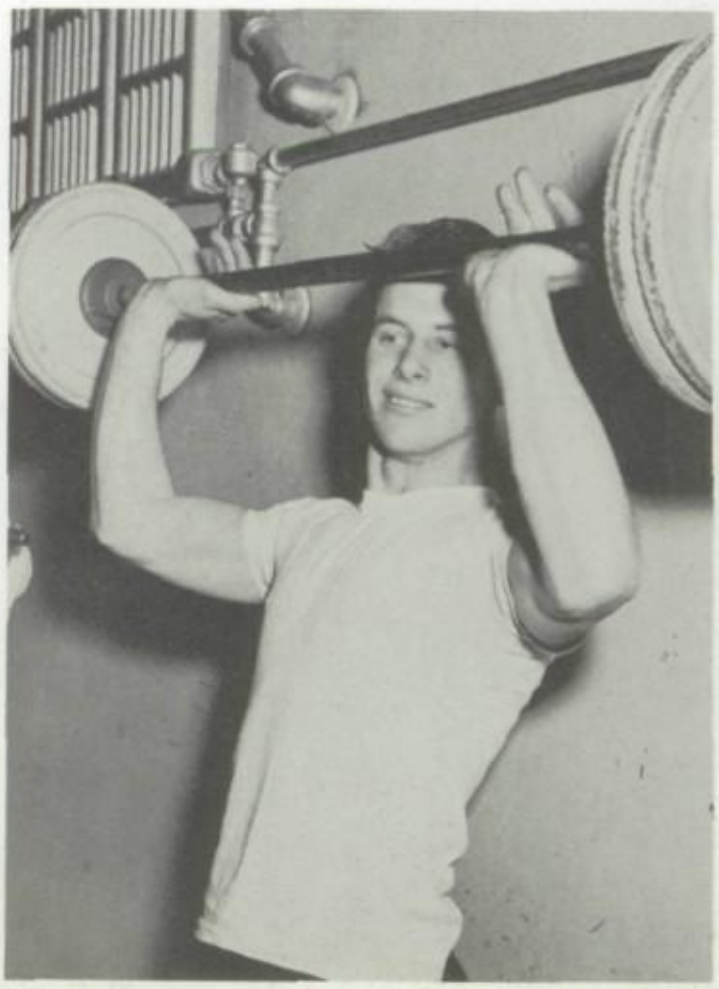
Knights in Training

Under the direction of Mr. Gaines and Mr. Catale the future Knights of Linden received their physical training for the school year. Included in this year's program were such sports as basketball, baseball, football, and soccer. Other activities were apparatus, square dancing, and social dancing.

There's nothing to it-



I've tried fifty times and still can't do it!

Ladies in Training

The Ladies doing their 'daily dozen'.

Nice shot!

Under the direction and guidance of Mrs. Creitz and Mrs. Casale, the girls develop and increase athletic ability, sportsmanship and team spirit. This year the girls enjoyed a varied program of sports, including soccer, basketball, and volleyball. They also learned a few dances. The ladies help by refereeing the games, which helps them understand the basic rules of the game.

Make that basket!

Knights of the Gridiron

This year, again, the Tigers proudly carried Linden's Orange and Black onto the field. Bad luck followed several members of the team, as they were injured in battle, but under co-captains Ernie "Tex" Vaughn and Frank Navarro, the squad put up a strong fight against the opposition. Coaches Smith, Martino, Oves, and Blue are sure the boys gave their all.

With the graduation of most of the starting line-up last year, Coach George St. Andrassy had the difficult job of rebuilding Linden High's basketball team this year.

Comprised mostly of last year's Junior Varsity Team, our Varsity Squad made a fine effort and compiled a fairly good record.

Our Junior Varsity Team did very well under Coach Gaines' leadership and should have many of its starters on next year's Varsity Squad.

Hey, Stan, Kick that Ball!

We around the Castle should be exceptionally proud of our soccer team. Their overall record of 10-2-2 was the best ever posted in L.H.S. soccer history.

Coach Frank Catale's team boasted the area's leading scorer, Vince Iraggi, who booted 18 markers during the season. It also ought to be recognized that our boys handed our longtime rival, Jefferson High, their first defeat in 26 games.

Soccer is a rough, dangerous sport and our Soccermen should be commended for their courage, sportsmanship and teamwork.

Tournament of Track & Field

Track is an individual sport, conquered by self-determination and drive. It is mastered by few and admired by many.

The first organized track-and-field meets were the Olympian games of ancient Greece.

When spring rolls around, and the scent of wintergreen can again be detected in the vicinity of the Athletic Field, it's no secret that Linden High's "Cinder Men" are preparing for the oncoming season.

The 1960 team was pushed through the season by the able coaching of coaches Smith and Merola. During the 1960 season, Linden excelled in the running events. Linden's big guns were George Patterson, Al Silverman, Ed Sot and Neil Metzger.

Against stiff competition, Linden's record was not the best, since the team consisted mainly of sophomores and juniors. We can expect a much better showing in 1961.

Safe?

The 1960 Baseball season of Linden High School will long be remembered. Our team was a champion team composed of knightly Juniors and Seniors. We played in both the County and State Tournaments and we excelled in both. Ed Apalinski and Ray Crepeau were our most outstanding pitchers, both of whom sported a couple of no-hitters. Linden High School and, above all Coach Frank Catale, are proud of our gallant knights of the diamond.

Ben Meyerowitz demonstrates the proper follow-through

In 1960, the Linden High golf team had its most successful year in history. The team was lead by the outstanding play of Dennis Treuchtlinger, who was one of the top players in the state. Fine performances were also given by Jeff Haltman, Al Metzger, and Ben Meyerowitz.

Although Metzger and Meyerowitz were lost through graduation, the team should be strong again with added help coming from juniors John Levine and Richie Lucas and sophomores Harvey Katz, Marty Farber, and Steve Kagan.

First Row: John Levine, Stephen Kagan, Marty Farber, Dennis Treuchtlinger, Harvey Katz, Mr. Gaines, coach. Second Row: Richie Lucas, Jeff Haltman, Bert Zitomer, Mike Perna, Al Metzger.

Girls' golf, under the direction of Mr. Dunbar, gives the girls of Linden High a chance to enjoy this popular sport. Meeting weekly in the boy's gym, the girls are taught the basic principles of golf.

First introduced to Linden High this year, girls' tennis is still in the experimental stage. With Miss O'Connor as adviser, the club seems quite successful and enjoyable to all the girls.

Faster than the speed of light.

GIRLS' GOLF—First Row: D. Farbaniec, S. E. Selmecy, D. Beriont, P. Caupkiewicz, M. DeBlasio, L. Miller. Second Row: Mr. Dunbar, C. Ravasy, C. Hingel, A. Wilzek, T. Novello.

DIVING CLUB—First Row: M. Sherling, H. Kuznetzowski, D. Seiom, C. Shinderman. Second Row: Mr. Cerillo, S. Crosa, M. Samuels, J. Bellotti, P. Wnek. Third Row: M. Kleicher, G. Parfitt, R. Phillips, E. Craig, R. Laskowski, M. Sharo.

Diving and Cross Country

CROSS COUNTRY

Our Cross Country Team had its first year of competition with a regular school schedule. Although the 2-8 record they compiled wasn't impressive, it must be remembered that the team is young. All members of the team will return next year and, with a year of experience under their belts, they should really improve. Our best runner this year, Neil Metzger, was one of the best runners in the county, and will be counted on again heavily next year.

DIVING CLUB

Impact of one of the nation's fastest growing sports was felt in Linden High School this year, with the organization, under Mr. Cerillo, of a Skin and Aqua-Lung Diving Club.

CROSS COUNTRY—First Row: L. Edwards, R. Becker, R. Casciano, M. Bulat, J. Richberg, R. Rostell, J. Felicio. Second Row: Mgr. William Cupo, E. Craig, A. Kellert, K. McClaine, N. Poleski, S. Kupcho, B. Zaranka, N. Metzger, N. Smith, Coach Joseph Gaines.

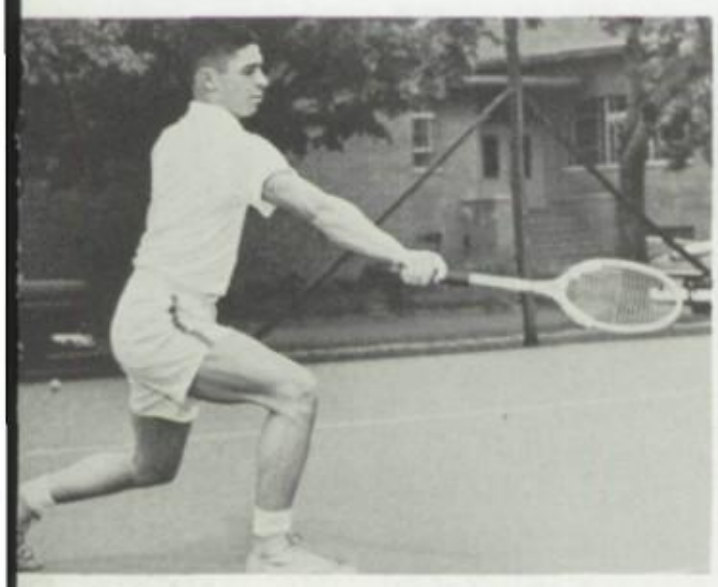
On the Court

On balmy spring afternoons, you can see the Tennis squad practicing their strokes to get in shape for the coming season.

This year's team was supported by the fine play of seniors Mark Hebel, and Howie Levitan and juniors Steve Kleiman and Ray Baytala.

Don Entlich, Georgie Stokes, and Mike Semanchik will be counted on heavily next year, to take up the slack left by the graduation of three of the four starters.



Mark Hebel demonstrates his backhand shot.

Orders and Decrees

We the Senior Class of 1961 of Linden High School, residing in Linden, Union County, State of New Jersey, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our First Will and Testament.

Madeline Selert leaves a place in the lost and found department to any forgetful juniors.

Burt Zitomer wills a bag of used golf tees to Harvey Katz.

Wilma Kuczynski will leave one beat-up Drivers' Ed. car to the future drivers who drive with their eyes closed.

Valerie Anderle leaves one battered typewriter to next years CHRONICLE typists.

The CYNOSURE typists wish to leave a new typewriter ribbon for the typewriter in Room 36.

Lorraine Majewski leaves her broken down locker to any patient sophomore.

Vince Simone wills his four periods of lunch to Bob Garcia.

Barbara Lesniak contributes her best typing speed to Bernadette Czech.

Laura Cutro wills three copies of "Today's Secretary," to Maureen Brauer.

Diana Crooks wills her height to any needy sophomore.

Allen Boxer wills his acting ability to Roger Walker.

Carol Carhart wills her excellent voice to Geraldine Castoral.

Eileen Bergstrom wills her old notebook from her freshman year to the entire junior class (one page each).

Dan Arant wills three slightly used carburetors and one magnet to John Beck.

Carl Bilak wills his streamlined, trophy-winning '39 Ford to Jeff Jones.

Betty Ogletree leaves all her Nixon buttons to Arthur Pedersen.

Carolann Fomkin wills her worn-out paint brushes, mangled tubes, pencil stubs, chalk dust, and discarded canvasses to John Gabrish.

Rita Conforti leaves to any junior in Mr. Coplan's Chem class one of his famous home-made fire extinguishers—the one with which she was soaked last year.

Joe Malik wills his brain to the new Linden High School Electron Microscope Lab.

Mr. Barr's section I Physics class leaves to the incoming students 27 unused copies of Modern Physics.

Marion Fuller leaves her outstanding speaking ability to next years breathless seniors.

Barry Miller leaves his three year's gym excuse (an ingrown toe nail) to the laziest of next year's senior boys.

Steve Weitzman leaves his total incooperativeness in class to the most progressive senior in the Class of '62.

Allen Boxer wills Dan Diskin's Log-log slide rule to anyone who can use it in next year's senior class.

Warren Babbitt wills a broken pitch pipe, a copy of "Trees," and a tarnished All-State Pin to a deserving senior in next year's varsity choir.

Rudy Franklin leaves all the pies he's got his fingers in to some outstanding junior.

Fran Mersitz and Toni Kania leave their battered megaphones to next year's cheerleading captains.

Dana and Gail Levine leave their doubly shattered nerves to next year's Senior Play managers.

Carole MacNicky wills the book entitled "Blonds Are Not Dumb," to anyone who thinks they are.

Marcy Jaffa leaves her copy of the "Settlement Cookbook" to the school cafeteria.

Miss Reynold's senior math class leave the key to the omnipotent file cabinet to next year's class.

The Class of '61 leaves care of the Pigeons to the class of '62.

Louise Joseph leaves her maid costume for next year's Senior Play.

Richard Osada leaves Bob Schmidt's bugle to any junior who, although he can't play it, is willing to make a fool of himself trying.

Leslie Harris leaves her souvenir-filled locker to some clean wholesome junior, so that he may become an all-around individual.

Judy Dombrowski wills an umbrella for next year's Halloween Queen attendants.

Carole Fischler wills a supply of old New York Times to next year's section I History Classes.

Joanne Draganchuk and Mary Mrozek leave 20 pounds of confetti and two used shakers to next year's Senior Pep Squad.

Mu Alpha Theta wills Miss Reynolds a new blackboard erasing crew to replace the lazy Senior Boys.

Mary Ann Della Torre wills her vibrant red hair to Nancy Walker, a needy recipient.
Diane Farbaniec wills forty old ditto sheets to next year's Student Council Secretary.
Maurice "Chink" Johnson leaves his singing voice to any deserving junior.
Jerry Klausner leaves all his broken flashbulbs to Tom Saunders.
Ernie Hoffer wills his football shoes to John Charles.
Stanley Kosierowski wills all the Kielbasi in the world to some deserving junior.
Joyce Jankowski wills her leopard skin sneakers to the Linden Tigers.
Fran Mersitz wills one soaking wet crown to next year's Halloween Queen.
Lynne Kielb wills her freckles to Bonnie Bean.
Joan Gelfond wills a wonderful experience and a bottle of aspirins to future Cynosure Editors.
Loretta Chrzanowski wills a box of fast acting tranquilizer pills to the senior girls in next year's Business Ed. Course.
Bob Kling wills his appetite to Leonard Mattlock.
Jean Smith leaves her nickname (Smitty) to Bob Smith.
Phylis Raiffe wills a bottle of nerve pills to all students taking next year's College Boards.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hand and seal at the City of Linden, State of New Jersey, to this our First Will and Testament this day of June 1961.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the Senior Class of '61, the testatore aforesaid, in our presence as and for their First Will and Testament, and we the undersigned, as their request of each other, did hereunto subscribe our names as witness thereto at the city of Linden, State of New Jersey, the day and year aforesaid.

Warren Babbit—Residing at H.R. 201.
John Chmiel—Residing at H.R. 221.

Standing on the threshold to success, the final touches are administered . . .

H. R. Sec. 3.

For knighthood is not in the feats of war,

As for to fight in quarrel right or wrong,

But in a cause which truth can not defarre;

He ought himself for to make sure and strong,

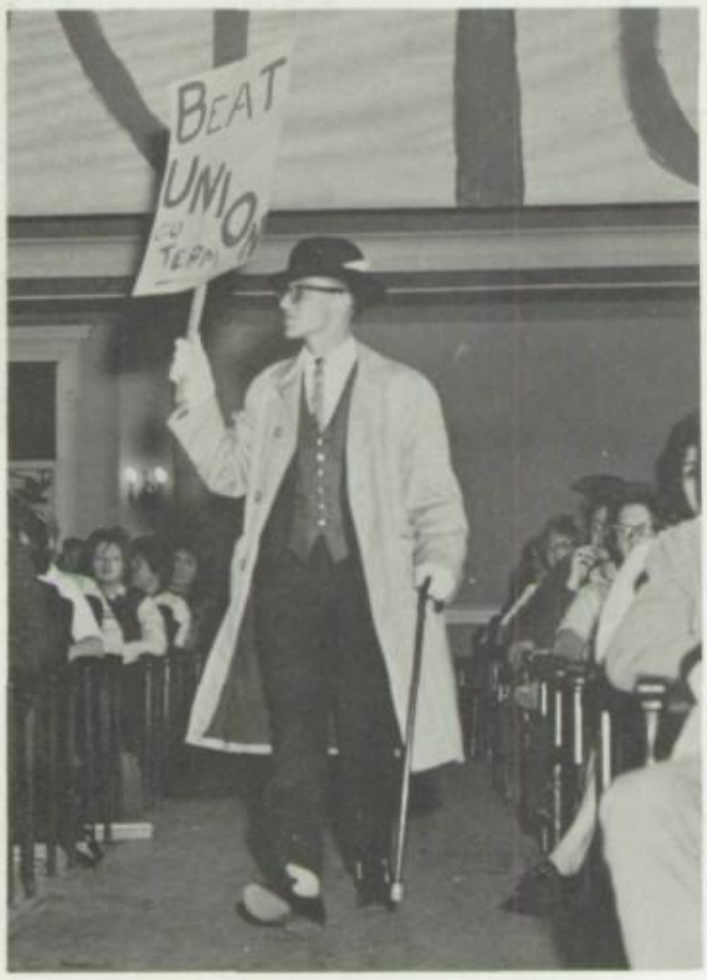
Justice to keep mixt with mercy among:

And no quarrel a knight ought to take

But for a truth, or for a woman's sake.

Stephen Hawes

A Royal Salute to the Pep Squad



Richard Osada ALMOST convinced us that it was possible.

November Brings a Boom in School Spirit

The Pep Squad, a group of students whose main concern is creating school spirit, enlivened Linden High School on the football field, on the stage, and in the auditorium aisles.

This year our ever-present pigeons cooperated with our Pep Squad to make our Thanksgiving Day pep rally a memorable success.

First Row: R. Osada, A. Bromirski, S. Bosonac, C. Yakimof. Second Row: J. Bolick, T. Rudawsky, R. Schmidt. Third Row: A. Kania, M. Mrozek, J. Draganchuk, F. Mersitz, B. Rappisi.

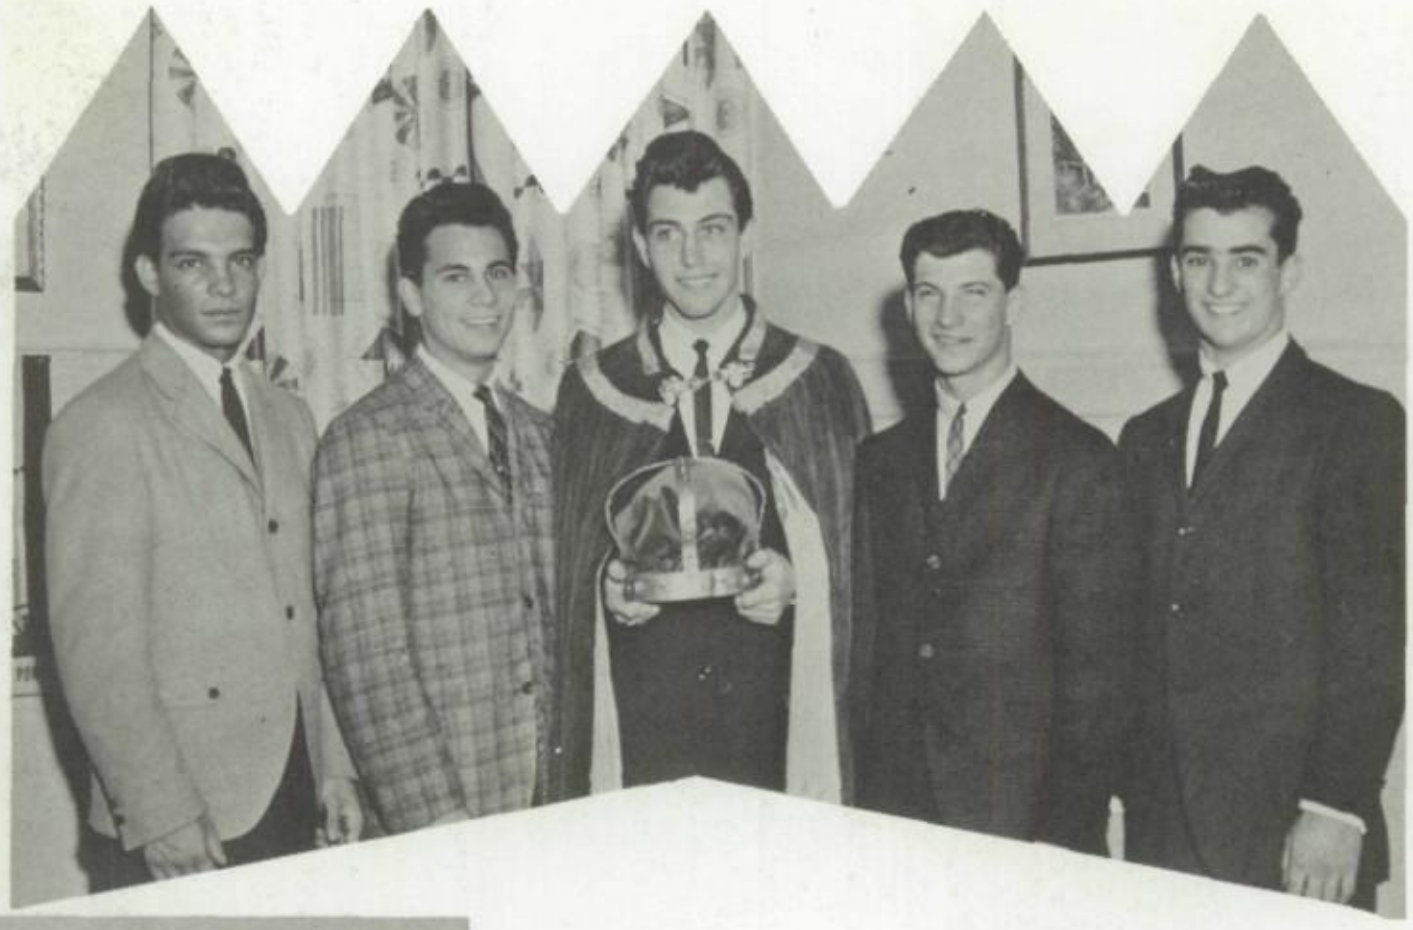
Rudy Franklin and Lillian Misley discuss their summer experiences. Rudy was a representative to Boy's State at Rutgers University. Lillian represented Linden High School at Girl's State at Douglas.

Jim Urso and Bob Marcus were members of the All-State Regional Band.

Viewers of The Holy Grail

Winning the essay contest sponsored by the Optimist Club enabled Joe Krynicky to attend John F. Kennedy's inauguration in Washington, D.C.

Warren Babbitt was a member of All-State Chorus.



Stan Marlan, Vincent Iraggi, Raymond Crepeau, Michael Pezzuto.

"The Royal Court"

The Hallowe'en King and Queen are members of the Senior Class, elected by the student body to represent the school in the Hallowe'en parade.

One boy and one girl is chosen from each senior homeroom, under the sponsorship of the Student Council. The entire student body elects the King and Queen and eight attendants. The selection of these people for the respective positions is based on popularity, looks, grooming, personality, and their contributions to Linden High School.

Raymond Crepeau and Frances Mersitz were the reigning monarchs for the year of 1960. Their attendants included the following: Stan Marlan, Vincent Iraggi, Bruce Laurie, Michael Pezzuto, Brenda Yori, Toni Kania, Judy Dombrowski, and Arlene Frances.

As representatives of Linden High, the royal court rode atop a beautiful float in the annual parade. The crowning of the royal couple concluded the festivities of the evening at the Milk Bar Dance.

"I crown thee Queen."

And what has captured the royal couple's attention?

Even our Queen needs last minute touches as the King awaits.

Dr. Barrett gives awards to the stage crew.

Gift Day is celebrated one day in the month of June. It is characterized by the giving and receiving of gifts by the school, students, and various businesses.

Awards and honors are given to students who have made outstanding records in the academic curricula, for outstanding participation in girls' and boys' athletics, and in various service clubs.

The tributes to the students are in the form of pins, letters, certificates, and scholarships.

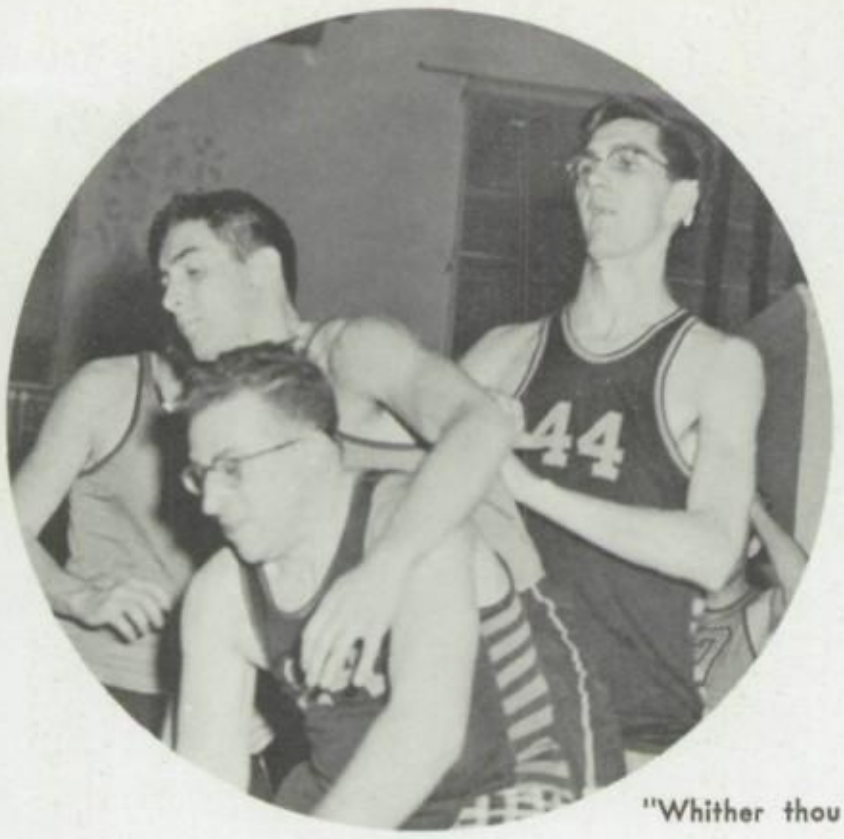
Mrs. Smith awards outstanding members of the Studio Guild.

Mary Ann Rocca and Dot Stracensky receive CYNOSURE awards from Miss Lang.

"Tribute to Our Knights and Ladies"

Louis Margaglione receives the All State Music Award.

The Old Order vs. The New



"Whither thou goest . . ."

On February 15th, Linden High's traditional Senior-Faculty game played off to the usual capacity crowd of enthusiastic and well-wishing students and faculty members.

The senior team, comprised of senior boys not on the high school basketball team, and their faculty opponents, which included two imported teachers from Soehl Junior High, were greeted with loud and energetic cheers, led by cheerleading squads made up of senior girls and women faculty members.

Through some excellent plays and shooting, the seniors tied the faculty 41-all in the fourth quarter, but couldn't catch up as the teachers proceeded ahead to win the game 53-45.

The women faculty members demonstrate what good cheering is really like.

Adding the final touches.

Once again Christmas has come to Linden High School, and one again the junior class had done a beautiful job of adorning our halls with colorful ornaments and decorations. The spirit of Christmas was also apparent in various other ways: The heart-warming voices of the glee clubs and choir, the festive seasonal decorations in the classrooms, and the general attitude of the entire student body and faculty members.

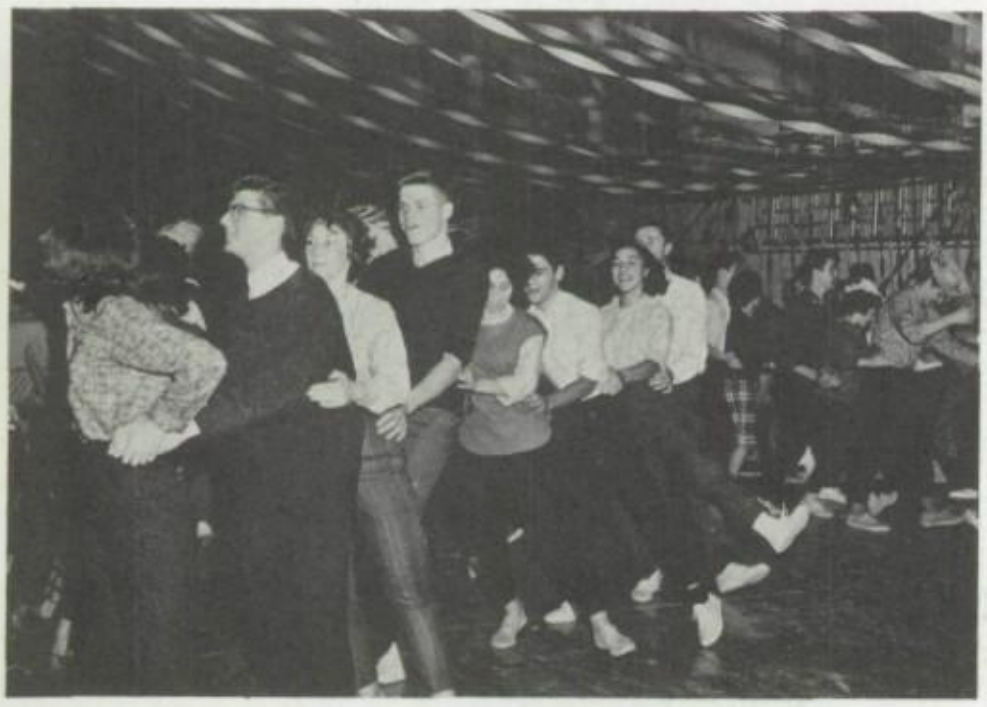
Serfs Have a Ball



Anyone for the Bunny-Hop?

Bud Page and His Rhythm Orchids played the music for this year's Junior Barn Dance. Everyone danced to polkas, Birdlands, and square dances.

Autumn colors were traditionally used as a theme in decorating the gym. At the end of the evening the students were allowed to take home decorations as souvenirs of their first school barn dance.

Halfway through the evening Class President Richie LaBracio led the Grand March to the gym for cider and doughnuts. There the committees who made the barn dance possible were earnestly thanked by all who attended.

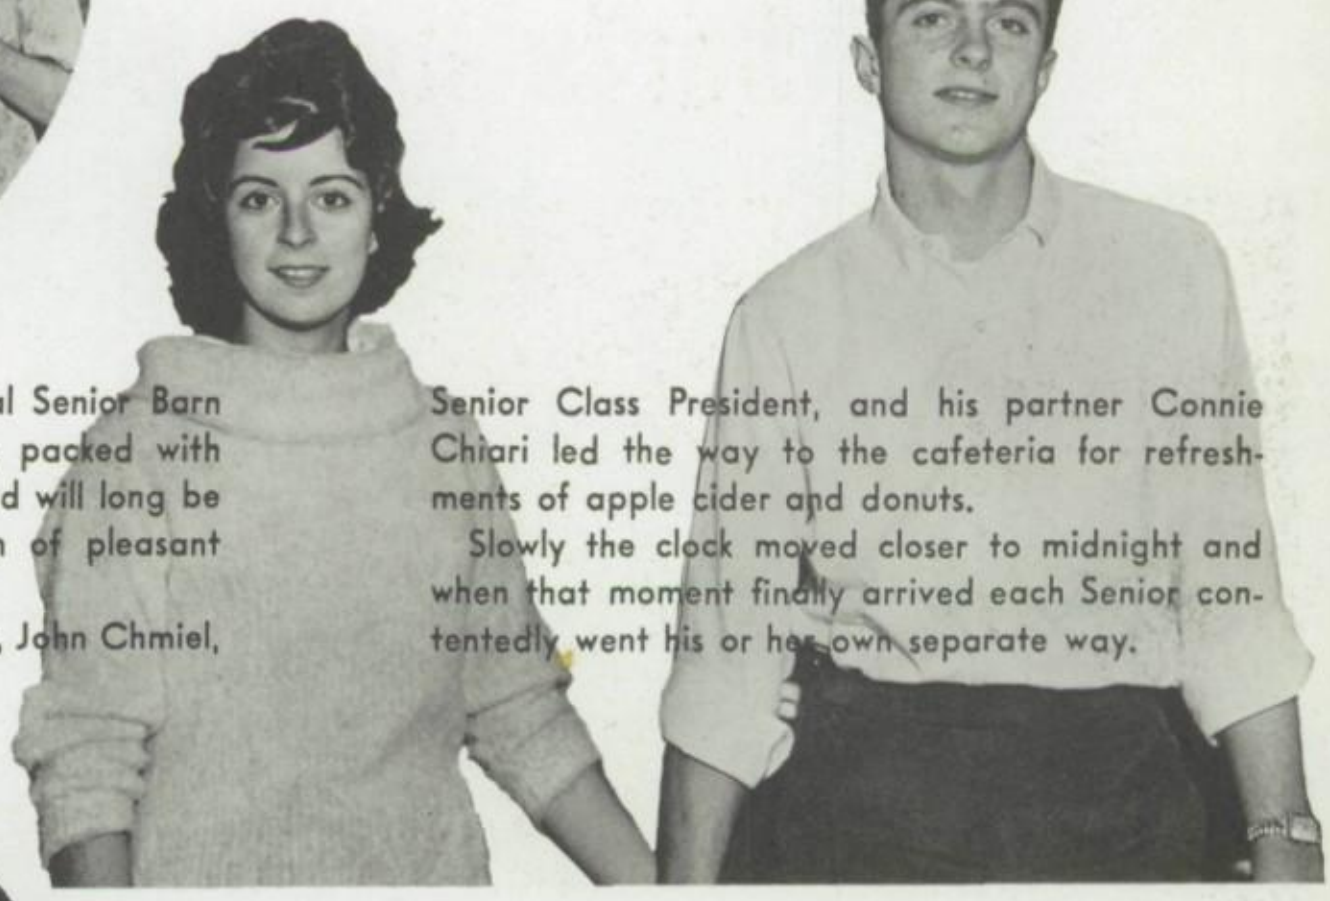
Shorty and Smokey Warren provided the music for a fun-filled evening.

Michael Szoke promenades Wilma Kuczynski around the set.



On November 7, 1960, the annual Senior Barn Dance was held. It was an evening packed with great anticipation and excitement and will long be remembered in each Senior's album of pleasant memories and recollections.

About halfway through the evéning, John Chmiel, Senior Class President, and his partner Connie Chiari led the way to the cafeteria for refreshments of apple cider and donuts.

Slowly the clock moved closer to midnight and when that moment finally arrived each Senior contentedly went his or her own separate way.

for 1961

As the cast of this year's senior play, "You Can't Take it With You" by Kaufman and Hart, prepared for their first performance on February 3, a terrible storm raged outside. The actors went on, although the blizzard was the cause of cancelling the Saturday performance until the following Friday.

A huge success, the traditional presentation was far above par. Mrs. Herbster worked hard as director with assistance from Mr. Jacobs, and the Levine twins, who managed behind the scenes.

Many seniors gave much of their time and effort to produce a smooth finished product.

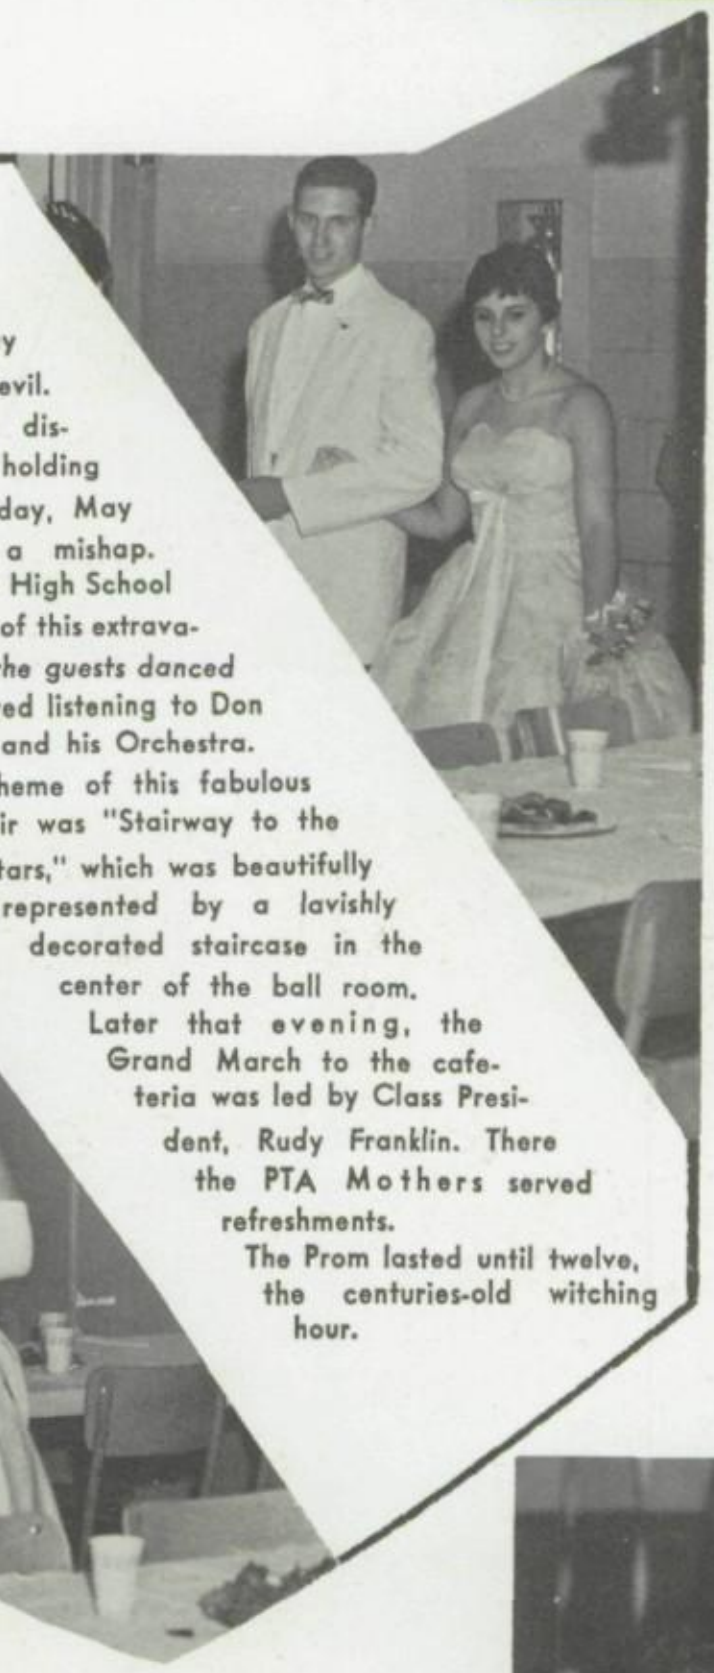
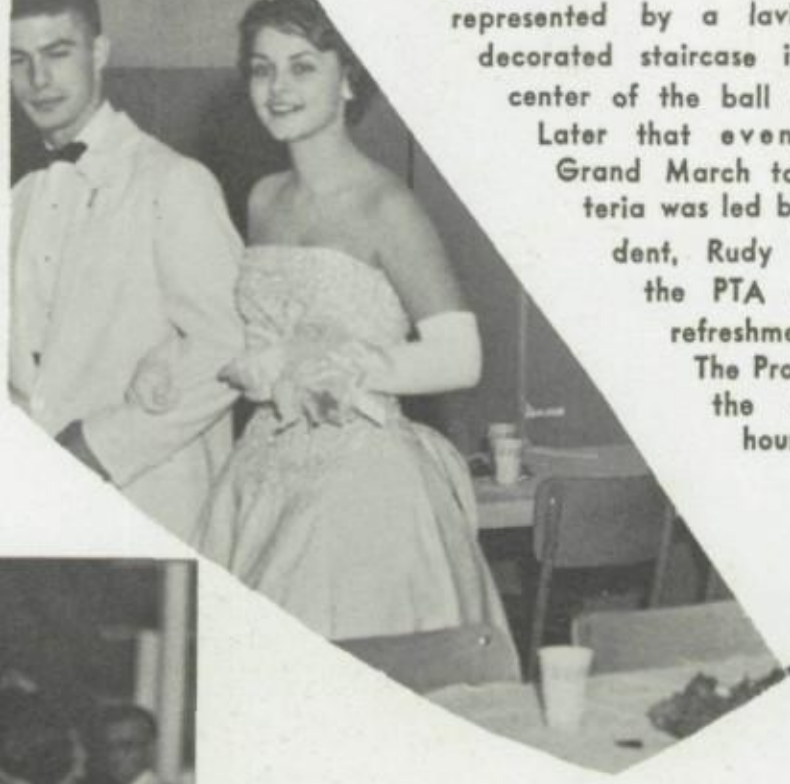
Jr. Prom

From the Dark Ages comes the superstition that Friday the 13th is unlucky and evil. Last year the Juniors disproved this fact by holding their prom on Friday, May 13th, without a mishap. McManus Junior High School was the scene of this extravaganza. All the guests danced and enjoyed listening to Don Gibson and his Orchestra. The theme of this fabulous affair was "Stairway to the Stars," which was beautifully represented by a lavishly decorated staircase in the center of the ball room. Later that evening, the Grand March to the cafeteria was led by Class President, Rudy Franklin. There the PTA Mothers served refreshments. The Prom lasted until twelve, the centuries-old witching hour.



Who caught Connie Chiari's eye?



Rudy Franklin and Mary Mrozek lead the customary Grand March.

KNIGHTS

So, as at all Royal Balls, the evening was divinely enchanting and the affair a perfect success. Merry-making commenced at 8:30 as guests were greeted and announced by Dr. and Mrs. Barrett and President John Pappas. After a whirling evening, the stroke of midnight dispersed the guests—guests filled with wonderful memories.

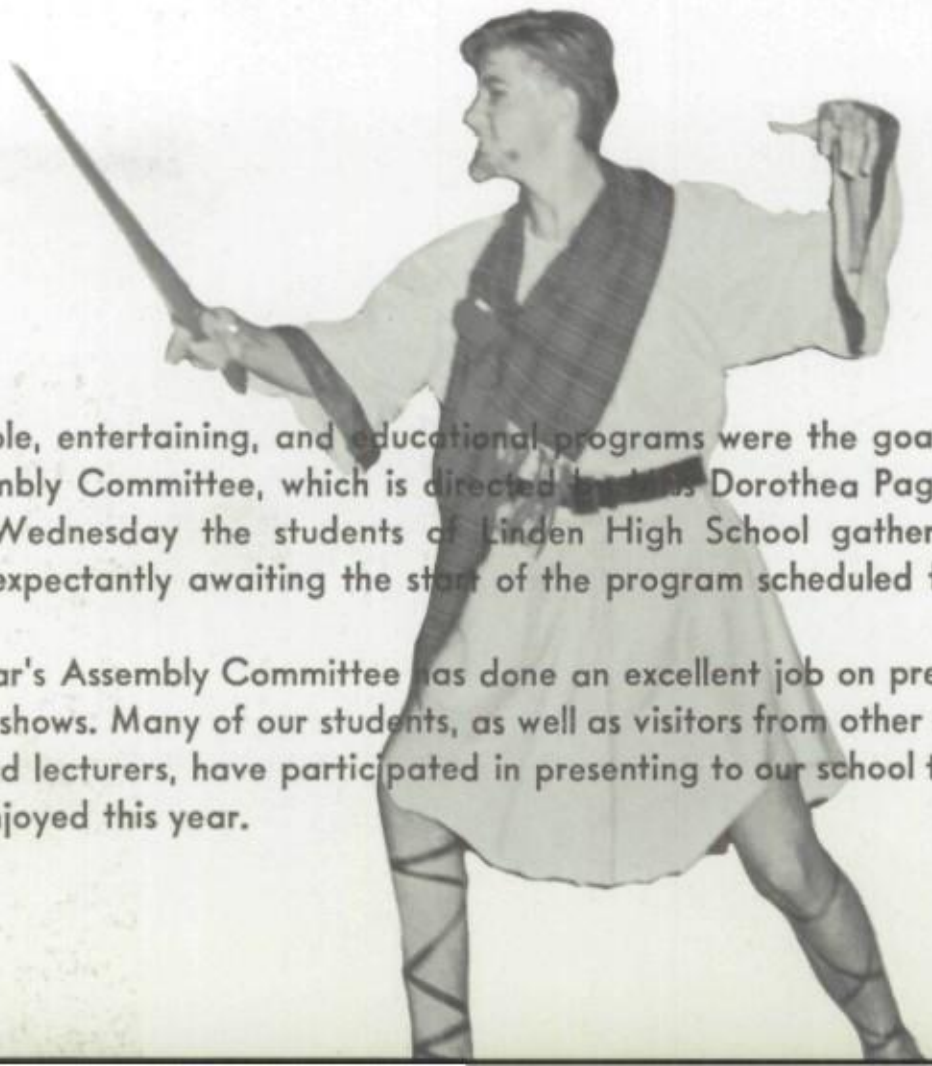
Entertainment at the Round Table

The Making of Macbeth



Enjoyable, entertaining, and educational programs were the goal of this year's Assembly Committee, which is directed by Miss Dorothea Page.

Every Wednesday the students of Linden High School gather in the auditorium expectantly awaiting the start of the program scheduled for that day.

This year's Assembly Committee has done an excellent job on presenting a variety of shows. Many of our students, as well as visitors from other schools, travelers, and lecturers, have participated in presenting to our school the programs we enjoyed this year.

In Dedicatione Sincera

Born in Shrewsbury, a small town in New Jersey, Miss Lang chose her life's work in the eighth grade. She attended Trenton State College and then went to New York University and Columbia University for further studies in the field of education. A rural school in the outskirts of Freehold, New Jersey, marked the beginning of her career. Not long after this, the Carteret Public School System hired her as an elementary school teacher. In 1926 Miss Lang came to Linden to teach the first continuation school class. This class consisted of students who began working before the age of sixteen and were therefore required to attend classes a stated number of hours a week until reaching that age at which state law allowed them to terminate their schooling. When continuation classes were no longer necessary, Miss Lang became first a Social Studies Teacher and then a guidance counselor.

Guidance has been the most rewarding and enjoyable facet of her career. This beneficent duty was not removed with her appointment as Assistant Principal; rather, more responsibilities added to it.

Throughout her career, she has performed her duties with capability and understanding. Because of this, the members of the Cynosure Editorial Staff dedicate this page to Miss Josephine Lang on the completion of a successful career.

A WORD TO BUILD ON . . .

Confidence

Never sell the future short — for yourself, your family or your country. True — there are problems and uncertainties ahead, but Americans are over-coming them every day, and they always have! Only those who haven't really tried make it seem too difficult. But the future is golden for those who keep their confidence high — and the thrift habit engenders confidence at every level of success!

FINIS

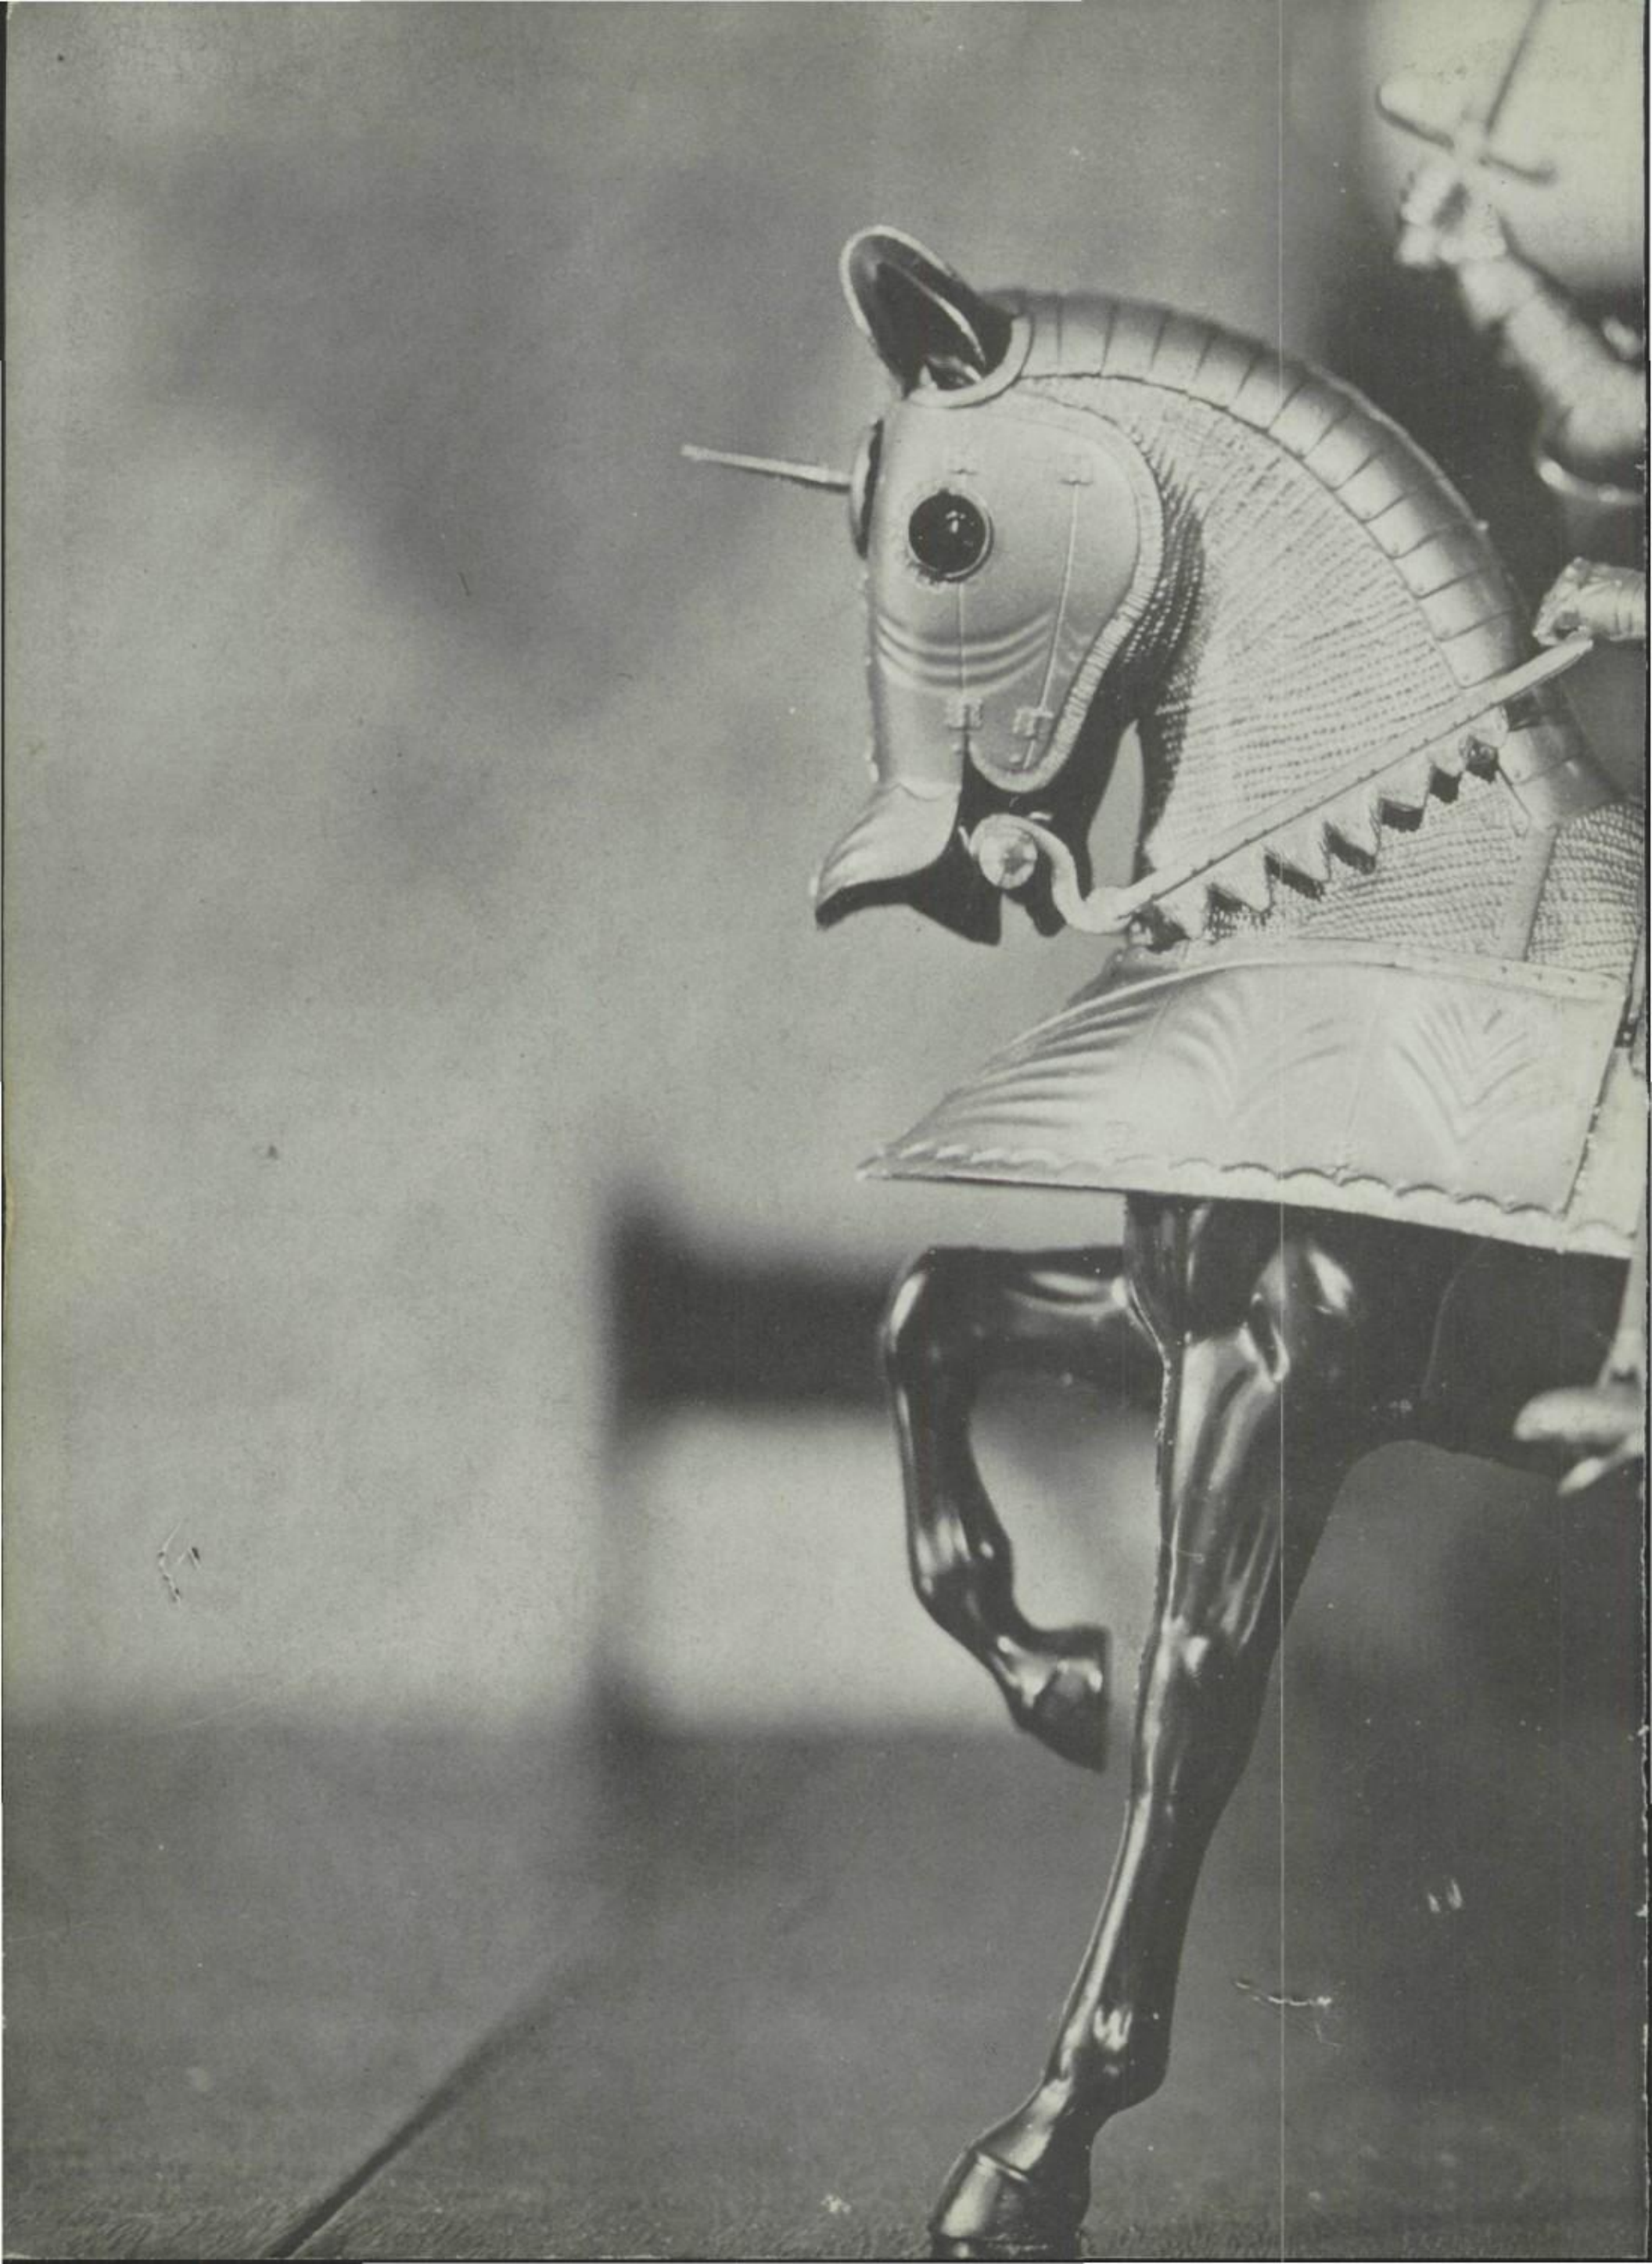
We, of Linden High School, would like to thank all those who have worked so hard to make our yearbook, the Cynosure, possible. To the Editorial Staff, the Circulation Staff, and especially to Mr. Volz, our cherished adviser, extend our most ardent thanks. It is our wish that everyone will get as much pleasure out of reading the Cynosure as we had in preparing it.

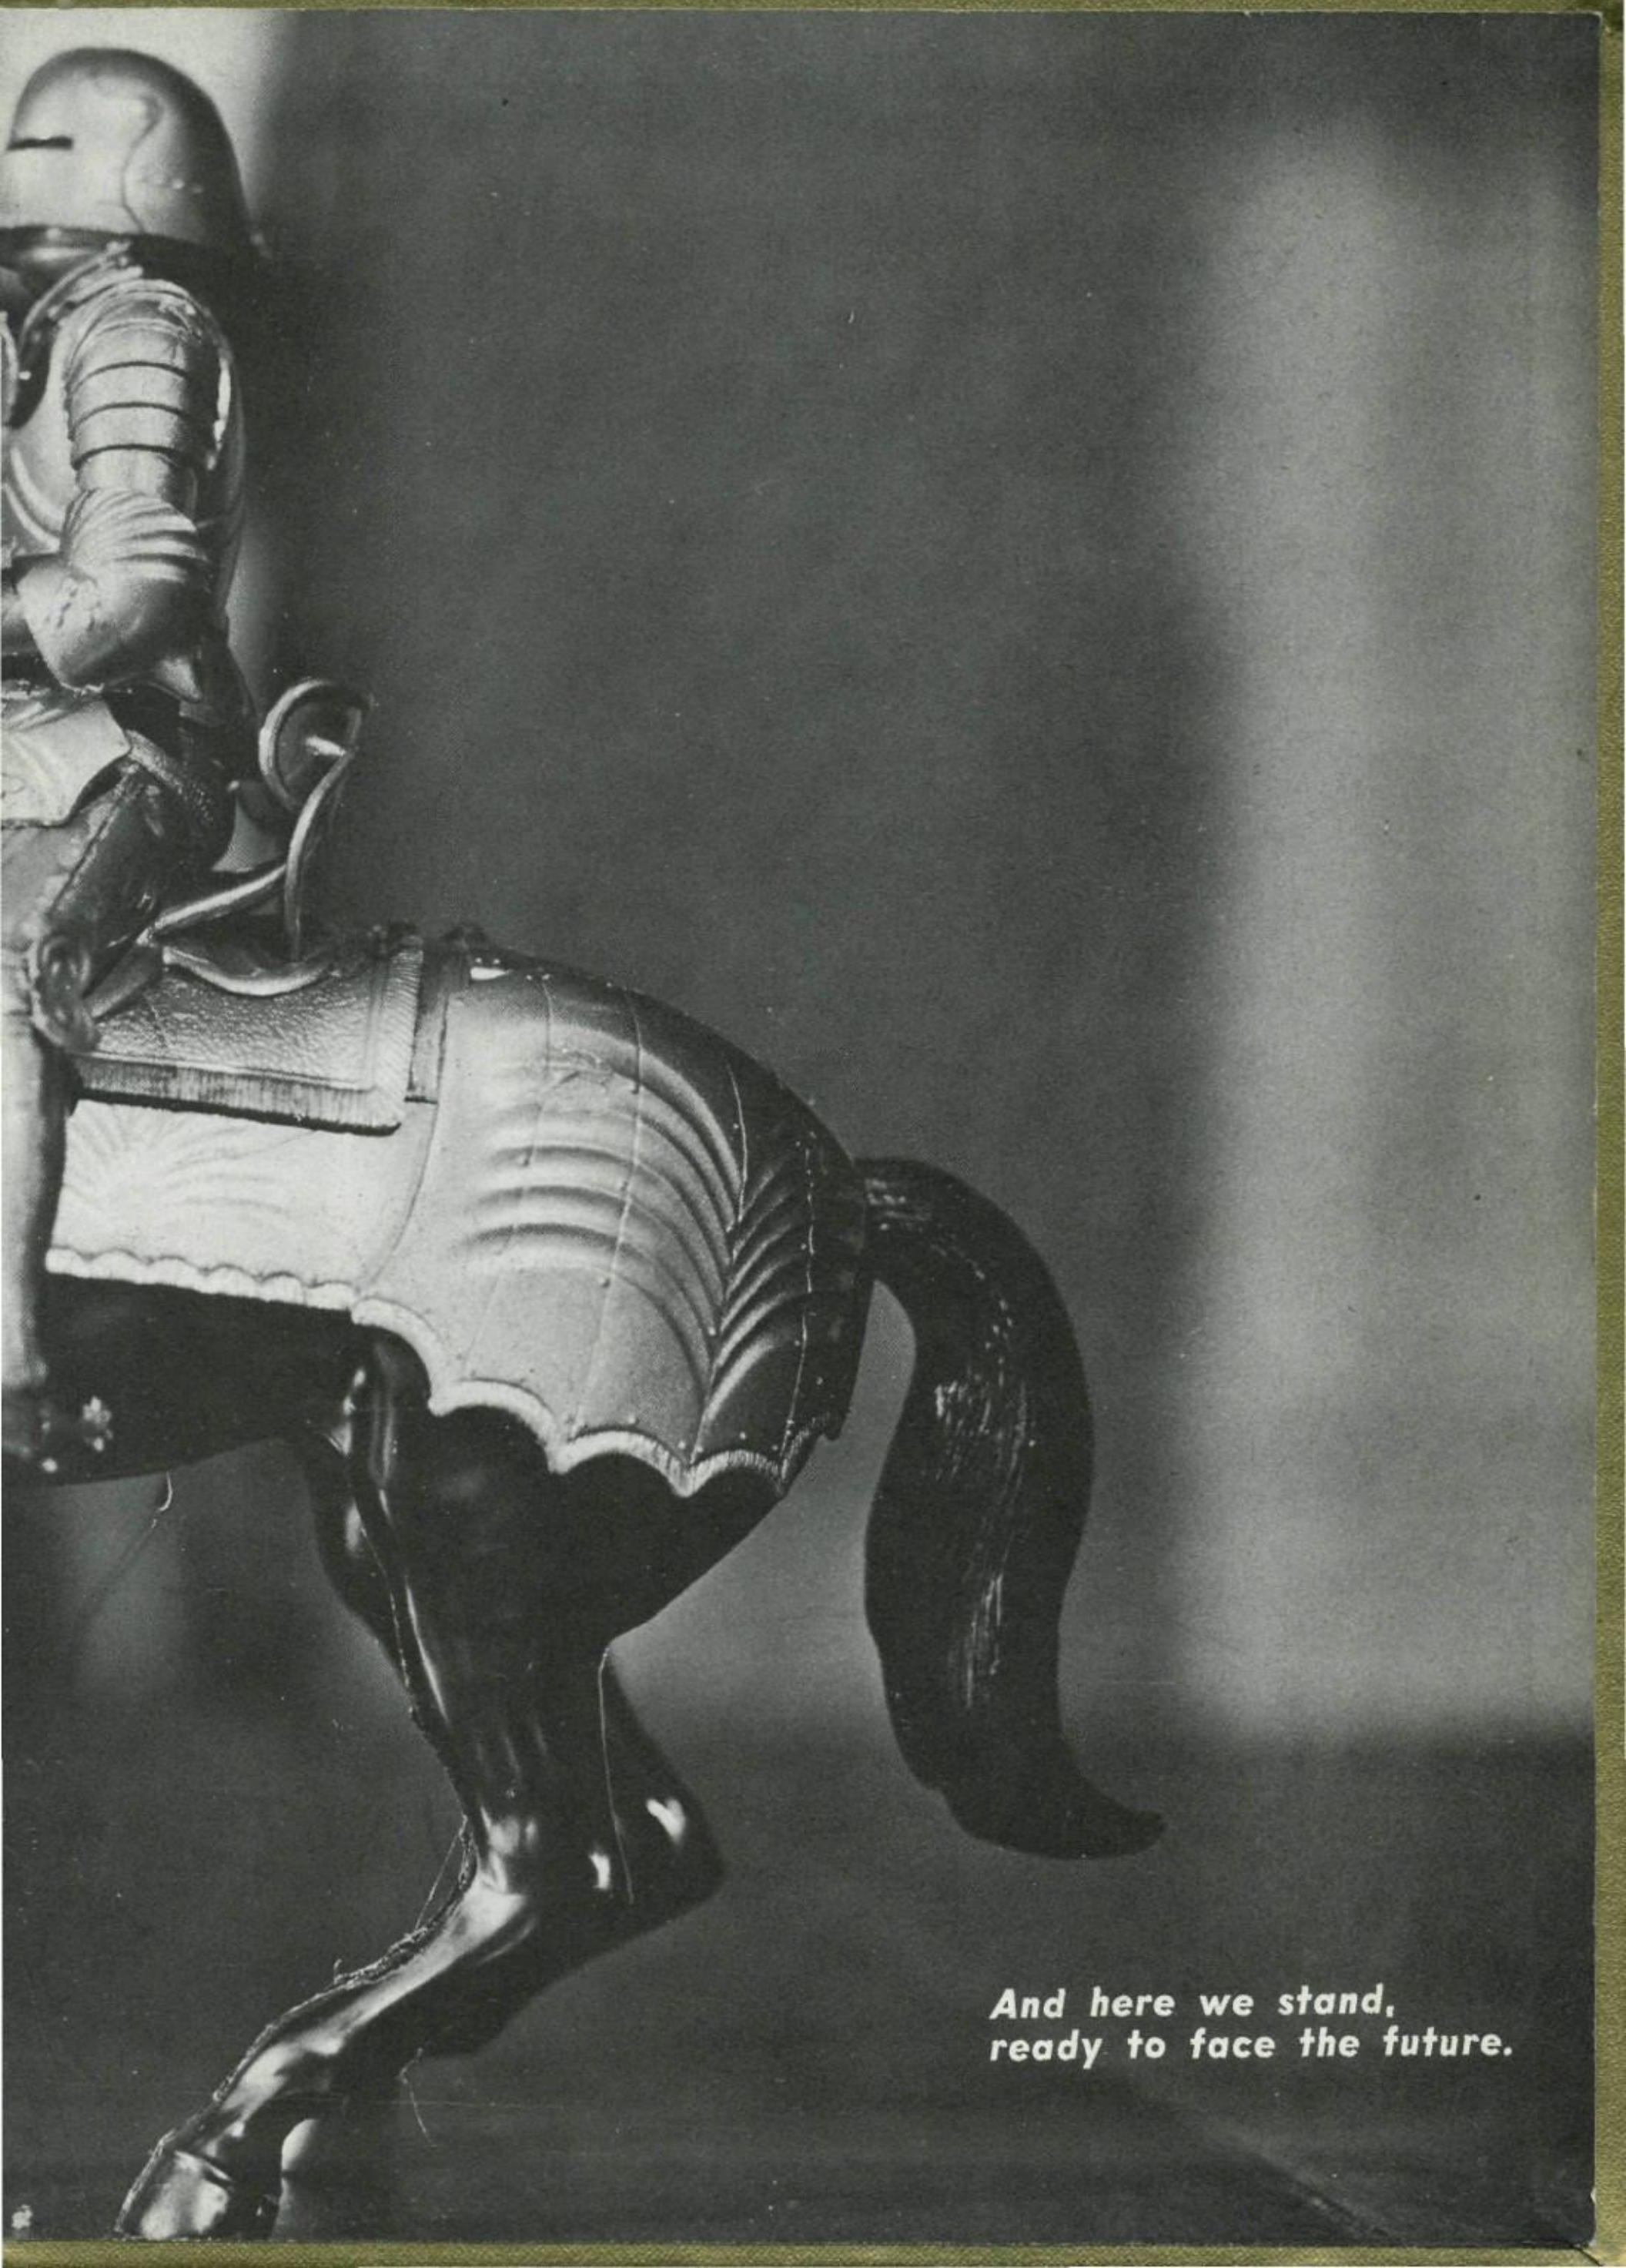
The Editors

Stash

Best of Luck, Success, and Happiness to one of the biggest kids I know. (Just Kidding). Remember all the fun we had during basketball season, and in the morning May we always remain friends and don't forget to look your best when you see someone you know!

Love
Lisa Perina





And here we stand,
ready to face the future.
